

TRAINING OF TRAINERS AND EXTENSION WORKERS

CONTENTS

- ⇒ Developing a training program.
- ⇒ Carrying out a training program.
- ⇒ Evaluate a training program.
- ⇒ Transferring knowledge and skills.
- ⇒ Organizing extension and training activities.
- ⇒ Make a well-motivated improvement plan.
- ⇒ Linked to these topics participants develop required competences to return as a confident professional.

It is important to realize that any trainer or extension worker needs two separate sets of skills and knowledge.

First, they need to know the topic they are teaching (subject matter expertise). Second, they need to know how to transfer that information to the student or farmer (instructional expertise). When instructors are hired to train (adult) students or farmers, they need both of these sets of skills.

FOR WHOM

- ⇒ Extension workers
- ⇒ Researchers
- ⇒ Agricultural policy makers
- ⇒ Teachers

TARGET

The participant is able to:

- ⇒ Explain the relevance and opportunities of agricultural extension for agricultural development
- ⇒ Apply participatory extension planning approaches and techniques to develop and implement extension plans in close cooperation between farmers and extension workers
- ⇒ Develop, arrange an outline for and evaluate a short training program
- ⇒ Prepare and conduct a practical class
